5 The fears of the municipality are baseless as a provision has been made in the ¶ 2 of the* Govt order that the arrangement which in no way touches the financial settlement existing between the Govt & the municipal Council concerned in regard to the maintenance charges &c, which guarantees the existing relations ships the President seems to think that the objections raised in his letter No 197* dt 29 12 1913 might not have escaped the notice of Govt, probably because his letter was not referred to in the preamble of the G.O. A reply may be sent as in para 8 supra
